FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How many players do I need to play?

It does not matter if you're coming to play on the weekend. If you wish to play on a weekday, a minimum of 12 players are required. (We open up exclusively for your group)

How many players do I need to play on our own?

A minimum of 24 players (12 vs 12), however if you have less you can pre-book one of our games masters for $150 and your group can play in isolation.

Can we start later than 9am?

Your group can pre-book one of our games masters for $150 and you can start playing when it suits you.

Can all of our group be on the one team?

Your group will always be split into two armies and play against each other. This keeps the atmosphere friendly and gives you the opportunity to shoot your mates.

When do the Starter Packs have to be paid?

Starter Packs can be paid up-to 48 hours prior, but if it's a special occasion we recommend paying 7-21 days in advance to secure your game.

Does getting hit by a paintball hurt?

Honestly, if the paintball splats on your hard plastic mask, you won't feel a thing! However, if you get shot on the bottom it feels like a loving spank.

Is Paintball dangerous?

Paintball is one of the safest activities out there. Statistically, Paintball/Skirmish is safer to play than golf, tennis or a bush walk. Enough said!

How many Paintballs do I need?

The world average for a session of paintball is 800 to 1,000 shots per player.

What's our Refund or Reschedule Policy?

5 days notice is required for a refund or rescheduled game day. No refunds are available for no-shows on the day
